Weekday Commemorations (From the Fr. Philaret Archives)

In the Byzantine Churches, each weekday has a special remembrance: Monday is dedicated to the Holy Angels; Tuesday we honor St. John the Baptist—the greatest man ever born, according to Our Lord!; Wednesday we remember the sufferings and death of Our Lord, who was sold on Wednesday for 30 pieces of silver; Thursday we commemorate the Holy Apostles, and St. Nicholas—a special patron saint of Byzantine Catholics; Friday is dedicated to the holy and life-giving cross of the Lord; and Saturdays are especially set aside to honor our blessed Lady, the Mother of God, and also to remember all the beloved dead, since Our Lord remained in the tomb on this day.
