Christian Attitude: From the Fr. Philaret Archives

The Gifts of the Holy Spirit are permanent qualities which each Christian receives at the time of our Baptism. They are a sharing in the Divine Life and they enable us to be docile in following the promptings of the Holy Spirit. They are seven in number: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety and fear of the Lord. Wisdom is the ability to make the best use of all that we have learned. Understanding enables us to think and to learn. Counsel is the ability to let our life be directed according to God's inspiration. Fortitude is a firm courage that enables us to live truly Christian life in the face of ridicule and persecution. Knowledge is the ability to clearly perceive God's truth. Piety is devotion to the duties and obligations of our religion. Fear-of-the-Lord or "holy awe" is a profound respect and reverence for God, for holy people including the saints and those especially consecrated to God (clergy, monks and nuns), and holy things.

Stewardship
