Divine Liturgy

Hymns

Troparion of the Resurrection (tone 7):

Through your Cross You destroyed death,
You opened Paradise to the thief, and turned into joy the mourning of the ointment bearing women, and You ordered your Apostles to proclaim that You rose, O Christ God, Bestowing great mercy upon the world.

Troparion of Athanasios and Cyril: Radiant with the works of Orthodoxy, you extinguished every false belief and teaching,
becoming trophy-bearers and conquerors.
Since you enriched all with true piety,
greatly adoring the Church with magnificence, O Athanasios, and wise Cyril, you have both attained Christ God who grants great mercy unto all.

Prokimenon: Precious in the Lord's eyes is the death of his holy ones.

Stichon: How shall I make a return to the Lord for all the good he has done to me?

Apostolic Reading: Heb 13:7-16

Gospel: Lk 19:1-10

Prayer Week for Christian Unity (January 18th - 25th)

O Our Lord and God, Jesus Christ, on the eve of your redemptive suffering, You fervently asked your heavenly Father that all your followers be one, as You are One with the Father and the Holy Spirit. We implore You, divine Master, To bestow upon all Christian Churches the unity of faith, of hearts and of purpose, so that they become one flock under the leadership of One Shepherd according to your wish. Grant us, Lord, to love one another as You loved us, So that, seeing our unity, the world may believe in You and embrace your message of peace and love.

January 18, 2026 — Sunday of Zacchaeus

For You are the Prince of Peace and Lover of mankind and to You we render glory, and to your Eternal Father, and your All-holy, Good and Life-giving spirit, now and always and forever and ever. Amen

Welcome Christ in Your Hearts and Homes

The Lord, who already welcomed Zacchaeus in his heart, was now ready to be welcomed by him in his house. He said, "Zacchaeus, hurry up and come down, since I have to stay in your house." He thought it was a marvelous piece of good luck to see Christ. While imagining it was a marvelous piece of good luck quite beyond words to see him passing by, he was suddenly found worthy to have him in his house. Grace is poured out, and faith starts working through love.

Christ, who was already dwelling in his heart, is welcomed into his house. Zacchaeus says to Christ, "Lord, half my goods I give to the poor, and if I have cheated anyone of anything, I am paying back four times over." It is as if he were saying, "The reason I am keeping back half for myself is not in order to have it, but to have something from which to pay people back."

There you are. 'That is really what welcoming Jesus means, welcoming him into your heart. Christ was already there. He was in Zacchaeus and spoke through him. 'The apostle says that this is what it means, "For Christ to dwell by faith in your hearts" (Eph 3:17).
